Ssshhh, Just Between You And Me?

Anyone who has attended a home open in Kensington this year would have been one of many. Well presented family homes in Kensington have been selling very well.

I am inviting you to an off-market opportunity to view and potentially purchase a beautifully presented and functionally designed property before the rest of the market does.

This quintessential Australian home has witnessed the children in this family start and finish their schooling at Kensington Primary School, go through all of their high schooling and become young adults in tertiary study and beyond. And now it is time for a new family to raise their children in this wonderful suburb and become part of this friendly
